Training Leaflet

About Karma Nirvana

Karma Nirvana advocates on the issues of domestic violence and honour based crimes for South Asian men and women.

Karma Nirvana raises awareness & campaigns nationally on these issues & provides practical & emotional support to victims & survivors to reduce the isolation of victims to increase reporting.

Agencies we have provided training to:

Karma Nirvana has provided support to some of the agencies below (list not exhaustive):

- Police Constabularies
- Social Services & Education professionals (incl. school assemblies & teacher training days, safeguarding boards)
- Government Offices
- Legal Service agencies (including CPS, Judges, Association of Women Lawyers, magistrates)
- Voluntary Agencies

What does our training cover?

Karma Nirvana can design & provide bespoke training to meet individual agencies learning outcomes. Agencies are required to outline learning outcomes on the "training/events request application".

Areas that we have covered include:

- Forced marriage & Honour Based Abuse
- No Recourse to Public Funds
- Forced Marriage (Civil Protection) Act
- Best practice guidance (do's & don'ts)
- Real life experiences (a survivor can speak about personal experiences, if requested)
- Case Studies

How is training provided?

- Conferences
- Talks and seminars
- Full day(s) training
- Workshop
- Assemblies (schools)
- Bespoke training packages

Our trainers are highly experienced & skilled professionals in the area of honour based abuse, domestic violence & forced marriage.

What about the cost?

Fees for training & events vary according to the nature of the training delivered. Training workshops and seminars for statutory agencies are offered at a standard training rate. This enables us to offer lower cost training to smaller or unfunded groups. We have a commitment to providing education about forced marriage & honour based abuse as widely as possible & are happy to negotiate manageable fees.
